

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Every task big or small is successful largely due to the effort of a number of wonderful people who have always given their valuable advice or lent a helping hand. I sincerely appreciate the inspiration; support and guidance of all those people who have been instrumental in making this effort a success.

I would like to thank my institution BMS College of Engineering for its support towards us in the form of providing an opportunity to do the project.

I express my sincere gratitude to Dr. Mallikharjuna Babu K, our principal, BMS College of Engineering for providing facilities.

I wish to place on record my grateful thanks to Dr. B G Prasad, Head of the Department, Computer Science and Engineering, BMS College of Engineering, for providing encouragement and guidance.

I hereby like to thank Dr. Kayarvizhy N, Associate Professor, Department of Computer Science and Engineering, BMS College of Engineering, who is my project guide, for her periodic inspection, time to time evaluation of the project and help to bring this report to the present form.

I would also like to thank the coordinators Dr. Indiramma M and Prof. Nagarathna N for coordinating us with our work as well as ensuring the timeliness in completion of our work.
